

Financial Institutions

SEK has been serving independent community financial institutions for over 50 years. We provide every client with a team of dedicated and experienced professionals who deliver a full range of audit, tax, and consulting services.

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Members of our Financial Institution Services Group have significant experience in providing income tax and audit services to financial institutions.

SEK Members and staff have been presenters on topics related to banks and have attended financial institution training. Our firm is a member of the Center for Audit Quality, an affiliation of the AICPA.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

Participating in the stringent peer review process since 1979, SEK is committed to providing the highest quality accounting, auditing, tax, and business advisory services. Our standards are tested every three years by an AICPA peer review. During a peer review, an outside CPA firm performs an in-depth review of the quality of the firm's audit practice and administrative procedures. We have consistently achieved the highest quality reports on compliance with professional standards.
