

Healthcare Advisory

Financial and operational issues are among the most consequential for healthcare providers. Rising costs, decreased third party reimbursements, expanding market demands, staffing shortages, and constantly changing federal, state, and local regulations are some of the challenges faced by the long-term care community. SEK provides sound financial, operational, and reimbursement advice to long-term care providers to maximize efficiency and contain the costs of care.

WHO WE SERVE

- Hospitals
- Skilled nursing facilities
- Federally qualified and rural health care centers
- Health systems
- Continuing care retirement communities
- Home health care organizations

SERVICES WE PROVIDE

- Accounting – compliance and financial
- Tax planning and compliance
- Cost control studies
- Consulting and assisting on financing issues
- HIPAA compliance monitoring
- Operations consulting
- Strategic planning/feasibility studies
- Business consulting
- Payroll processing and reporting
- Employee benefit plan design and administration
- Financial forecasting and budgeting
- Business valuation
- Merger & acquisition advisory
- Medicaid and Medicare cost report preparation
- Reimbursement consulting
- Revenue cycle management
- Financial reporting

Our consultants stay current through active participation in local and national organizations, such as LeadingAge PA and Healthcare Financial Management Association. Our firm is also a member of Allinial Global's Healthcare Community of Practice. These affiliations provide our firm with extensive technical support, access to resource directories of consulting support

TEAM LEADERS

Erin Clark CPA, MBA

Member of the Firm

📞 301.733.5020

✉️ eclark@sek.com

Gregory Hall CPA, CMA, CFM

Member of the Firm

📞 717.975.3436

✉️ ghall@sek.com

Timothy Peters CPA, CFF, CGMA

Member of the Firm; Director of Quality Control

📞 301.733.5020

✉️ tpeters@sek.com

materials, and continuing professional education focused on the long-term care industry.

Visit www.sek.com for more information or to schedule a consultation today!