Erin leads audit, accounting, and advisory engagements across a variety of industries, including nonprofit organizations, healthcare entities, local governments, and financial institutions. Erin excels in planning and managing client engagements, fostering strong relationships, and providing invaluable insights to her clients. She is committed to mentoring department staff, nurturing their growth, and ensuring the highest standards of service delivery. Erin is involved in various knowledge-sharing initiatives. She serves as an instructor for the firm's internal training programs, focusing on auditing and accounting, and is a featured presenter at our annual client seminars for nonprofits and local governments. Moreover, Erin has shared her expertise as a presenter at esteemed events like the Maryland Association of CPAs Government and Nonprofit Conference. Additionally, she contributes to the firm's Nonprofit Task Force, Healthcare Task Force, and Financial Institutions Group, demonstrating her commitment to advancing industry knowledge and solutions. Erin has been recognized and celebrated for her contributions to the local community. She was selected as the 2022 Rising Star Award winner as part of Community Foundation of Washington County MD, Inc.'s People's Choice Awards for her commitment to the Washington County community through volunteerism and support of local charitable endeavors. She was presented with the 2023 Jesse L. Kagle Award for Distinguished Service by the United Way of Washington County for her community spirit and supporting the organization's mission to go above and beyond the commitment and service to Washington County. Additionally, she was a 2022 Young Professional of the Year finalist for the Washington County Chamber of Commerce's annual Business Awards and a 2023 Women to Watch Award nominee in the Emerging Leader category, recognized by the Maryland Association of Certified Public Accountants.
