Seth has over six years of experience in accounting, finance, and treasury roles, along with more than three years in public accounting. He primarily serves agriculture companies, closely-held businesses, and individual clients. Seth helps clients gain a clear understanding of their financial position and navigate complex tax considerations, with a focus on both current needs and long-term planning. He works closely with clients to deliver personalized tax and accounting solutions, including tax return preparation, strategic planning, and consulting services. In addition to his client responsibilities, Seth actively contributes to the firm's professional development, community involvement, and growth as a member of the Emerging Professionals Committee.
